

IHC Tech Only Stains

Test ID: IHC

Explanation:

Mayo Clinic has completed its transition to the new digital imaging solution for tech-only IHC/ISH stains. Digital imaging for tech-only stains will be reinstated effective December 14, 2022. Digital images are accessible using the hyperlink in either the email notification (if configured) or from the final test report. Additional information is available on the MCL website: <https://news.mayocliniclabs.com/ihc-stains/>. We appreciate your patience during this transition period.
