

Procollagen I Intact N-Terminal, Serum

Test ID: PINP

Explanation:

Due to a reagent supply issue, this test will be made non-orderable effective immediately. Specimens that have already been received or are in transit will be stored frozen while we explore possible referral and testing options. If a suitable referral option cannot be identified or specimen stability is exceeded, testing may be delayed or canceled. Additional communication will be provided as it becomes available. An update will also be provided when testing resumes.
